PROGRAM THIS WEEK: Jessica Eilerman, Market Manager for Florida, CFO Jeff Atwater

Jessica serves on behalf of the State of Florida Chief Financial Officer Jeff Atwater and the Department of Financial Services. Covering 11 counties along the south-west Florida Gulf coast, Jessica represents both CFO Atwater and the Department to Floridians living in this dynamic and active region of Florida. CFO Atwater was elected on November 2, 2010 and sworn into office on January 4, 2011. His key initiatives are in transparency, finances and the economy and fraud and consumer protection. Jessica helps to promote and support his initiatives in addition to serving as the lead staff on small business, economic development and workforce development issues.

Prior to joining CFO Atwater's office, Jessica spent more than six years with the St. Petersburg Area Chamber of Commerce as their Director of Public Policy and Economic Development. She has experience in policy, campaigns and association management. She has her BS in political science from the University of Evansville and her MA in Management & Leadership from Webster University where she graduated with honors.

Originally from St. Louis, Missouri, she loves Cardinals and Rays baseball and spending time outside in the beautiful Tampa Bay area with her husband, Nick, and their two dogs.
