

U.S. CONGRESS-

MAN DAVID JOLLY:

David W. Jolly (born October 31, 1972) is an attorney, former lobbyist and the U.S. Representative for Florida's 13th congressional district. A Republican, he previously served as general counsel to his predecessor, Congressman Bill Young. He won the race for Young's seat as the Republican candidate in a 2014 special election against Democrat Alex Sink. Congressman Jolly was born in Dunedin, Florida. He received his Bachelor of Arts in history from Emory University and JD from George Mason University

School of Law. He is married to Carrie Jolly (1999–2014), and lives in Indian Shores.

He worked for Congressman Young as an advisor and General Counsel until 2007 when he began working as a lobbyist for Van Scoyoc Associates in Washington, D.C. He started his own lobbying firm, Three Bridges Advisors, in 2011 and contributed political donations to both Republicans and Democrats during his time as a lobbyist.

Congressman Jolly is against the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act and says he has goals of lowering taxes and cutting spending. He believes Israel is one of the premier allies of the United States and has a goal of not cutting the United States commitment to the military and to its allies. He is pro-life, says that he "supports the constitutional right to keep and bear arms," and opposes amnesty for illegal immigrants. He supports the Balanced Budget Amendment, and would have voted to raise the debt limit in early 2014.

An Update from Ron Luciano

Hello all!

Attached is a picture of my new look! Snappy, eh? It's the interim plan until I get my permanent one in around 6 months or so, after the stump is completely ready.

OK – now for the updates.

Health – Received my interim leg last Thursday and working hard at mastering the complex worlds of walking, turning around and stepping up and down stairs, Much harder than it seems' I go the physio gym every day for a 1.5 hour appointment with a therapist as well as the same time frame with an occupational therapist who works on life skills. Upper body strength and mobility issues. I'm scheduled to leave on April 15 but will continue as an outpatient. I hope to walk to Jeff's car. I'll get my "permanent" leg" once the stump shrinks – around 6 to 9 months.

Living arrangements – Jeff and Peter have found a 2 bedroom/2 washroom condo apt with easy elevator access from the lobby and reserved parking. Peter and I will share the space and the rent. It is a new building just off Yonge St and the 401, quite near a subway stop. The boys will move all my stuff and so, I'll go directly to the new condo from the rehab hospital. The new address for Peter and myself is 100 Harrison Garden Blvd, #419, Toronto, On M2N 0C2. Not sure of the phone number situation yet but will update in a few weeks.

Regards to all,
Ron

The Florida Code Explained

When giving directions in Florida, you must always start with the words, "take I-75, "take I-4 "or "take I-95."

If you're a snowbird or a non-working retiree , you absolutely cannot drive between the hours of 6 A.M. to 10 A.M. and 4 P.M. to 7 P.M. This is considered to be RUSH HOUR and you are not in any rush. NO EXCEPTIONS. (But you will drive anyway.)

I-275 (Tampa area) will always be under construction ... that's the law and there is nothing anyone can do about it, period!

Traffic lights are not timed and never will be.

We measure the distance we travel in time - not miles.

Every street in Florida has both a name and a number (i . e . Adamo = Rt . 60) just for the heck of it -- and also for the pleasure we get from reaction of visitors when we give them directions.

Your car's signal blinker means nothing. It will be left on at all times.

When a hurricane is headed our way, even though you have advance warning and you are told to be prepared, you're not a true Floridian unless you wait until the absolute last minute to go to Home Depot to pick up plywood or to Publix to stock up water, ice, and potato chips.

A true Floridian does NOT own a boat. They make friends with someone who already owns one. That way you don't have to deal with any of the headaches.

You weren't born here. If you were, you're angry that anyone else has moved here.
