

Meet Our Speaker: Jim Olliver

Dr. Olliver is the Provost (Chief Operating Officer) of St. Petersburg College's Seminole Campus. He also oversees the planning and operations for the college-wide Web and Instructional Technology Services department and recently concluded a large ($11 million) federal grant, "Project Eagle." Through "Eagle" SPC has grown the largest electronic campus (online courses) in the State of Florida, and has won numerous state and national awards.

Dr. Olliver has over 30 years of experience in a variety of higher education leadership positions in New York, Pennsylvania, Indiana, North Carolina and Florida. He served as Vice-President for Planning at SPC from 1989 to 1996, when he was named Provost. Immediately prior to joining the staff at SPC, he served as Executive Vice President at Pfeiffer University in North Carolina. Dr. Olliver regularly presents at conferences, consults, and has authored numerous articles and book chapters. He is involved in a variety of civic organizations and activities, and the Seminole Campus was named the 2009 "Business of the Year" by the Greater Seminole Area Chamber of Commerce under his leadership. He also received the Chamber's highest honor, the designation of "Mr. Seminole" in 2008 for his long-standing contributions to the community.

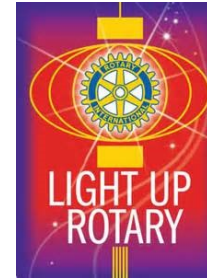

Dr. Olliver received his bachelor's degree in philosophy from the State University of New York College at Buffalo, and his master's and Ph. D. in higher education administration from Florida State University.
