

Meet Out Speaker: Katie McGill

Katie McGill is the Executive Director of Dress for Success Tampa Bay and has held this position for over 10 years. Ms. McGill is an individual who overcame adversity early in her life, leaving a troubled marriage, and a toxic relationship with only one dollar bill in her pocket. In spite of this challenging situation Ms. McGill successfully raised her child and wanted to help other women do the same. In the process, she volunteered at the Crisis Center. She worked with women to ensure that they understood that their present situation did not have to determine their future. Ms. McGill is not only the Executive Director of Dress for Success Tampa Bay but she was also once a volunteer of the organization and to this day keeps the last dollar she had in her pocket at the lowest time in her life to remind her that life with only one dollar to her name did not define nor determine her future.
