

Meet our Speaker: Rita Priest

Rita Priest is the co-founder of AscensionConsult. This company was founded on thirty years of extensive research that has centered on the genetic and environmental impact of the human brain and its effect on communication, relationships and behavior. Research proves that 85% of conflict is a direct result of miscommunication, which has inevitably led to decreased productivity, job dissatisfaction and internal conflict.

AscensionConsult has developed a formula rooted from principles that highlight a strong progressive company culture, operational transcendence, development of professional staff on every level, robust sales programming, and a technological push. Utilizing tools and ideology from previous exposure to successful best business practices, research expanding over twenty years, and passion for a better equipped business model in today's ever expanding business world; AscensionConsult is ready to take on all of your business needs – large or small.
