

Meet our Speaker: Mark Ely

Mark Ely has been practicing land use and zoning in the governmental regulatory arena for over 27 years. He previously worked at the county-wide level for over twelve years implementing the Pinellas Planning Council's Countywide Rules, where over that time period he wrote and presented hundreds of Countywide land use cases before the Pinellas Planning Council at its monthly meetings. Since October of 2006, he has been serving as the Community Development Director for the City of Seminole, where he oversees the planning, zoning, building, and code enforcement functions for the City.
