

Meet our Speaker: Alex Heeren

Alex Heeren is an educator and a Pinellas County native. Raised in Seminole, Alex is a proud graduate of Pinellas County schools. He graduated from the Center for Advanced Technologies program at Lakewood High School, then earned his Bachelor of Science in Telecommunications from the University of Florida.

Alex has been serving his community since his youth. He was in Boy Scouts, spending weekends, evenings, and summers working on service projects throughout the community. He is a proud Eagle Scout.

In his professional life, Alex taught math and computer skills at Meadowlawn Middle School. He was also the sponsor of a Girls Who Code after school program and coached the volleyball team.

Now Alex is a Technology Integration Coordinator with Pinellas County Schools. He helps teachers incorporate technology into their instructional practice. He represents the Teaching and Learning division on the school district's IT security council. He and his wife Teal, who is an English teacher, live in Seminole."
