

Meet Our Speaker: Barbra Clare

Barbara Clare has worked for Pinellas County Schools for 26 years. She started her career as a middle school home economics teacher. She spent 6 years in the district office, one year as a training specialist, one year as a vocational achievement specialist, and four years as the Supervisor of Family and Consumer Sciences and Health Science Education. She then moved on to become an assistant principal at Boca Ciega High School as the medical magnet coordinator for 5 years. From there she transferred to Seminole Middle School for a short stay as 8th grade assistant principal. She is now serving her fourth year as Director of Career Academies of Seminole.
