

Meet our speaker: Heather Burford, Fire Chief, City of Seminole

Heather Burford was sworn in as the Fire Chief of the City of Seminole Fire Rescue Department in January 2014 making her the second female fire chief in the department's history. Heather began her fire service career 32 years ago as a volunteer firefighter in Wilton, Connecticut and spent 25 years as a Career Firefighter and Fire Chief in Connecticut before fulfilling a career goal of moving to Florida.

As a lifelong learner, Heather has a Masters degree in Public Administration and is a graduate of the National Fire Academy's Executive Fire Officer Program. As a certified Paramedic for over 30 years, Heather has worked in large EMS systems in several US cities where she participated in incident prevention initiatives to improve community health and safety. Heather is a proud member of Team Rubicon, which brings veteran and first responders together to assist in disaster recovery.
