

Meet Our Speaker: Erica Hardison

Erica Hardison has worked in St. Petersburg for over 20 years to help develop sustainable change in many areas including food/agriculture, education, healthcare, and housing. She is a member of St. Petersburg Midtown Rotary, past president of her club and currently serves at Rotary District 6950 Education & Literacy Chair. Erica is the owner of Encore Boutique Services(EBS) - a boutique virtual assistance and resource consulting agency. EBS provides custom solutions to businesses and nonprofits that help them to operate more efficiently and effectively. Through her experience as an educator, a small business owner, and a community organizer, Erica has honed her natural ability to solve problems and think logically, creatively, and globally, while acting locally.

Please mark your calendars for September 6th to be at our weekly meeting as our new District Governor, Chris Casella will be visiting our club and we would like a strong showing of our club members!
