Rotary 2.12.25 Guest Speaker Scott Reed

Scott is the Regional Training Manager for Johnson Brothers Liquor company. Johnson Brothers is the 3rd largest distributor of Alcoholic Beverages in the US. Since the end of prohibition, Federal law requires all alcoholic beverages sold in a retail establishment must be distributed through a licensed distributor. Over his 40-year career in the industry, Scott has held numerous positions including Territory Manager, District Manager, Brand Manager and Account Manager. As Account Manager, Scott called on the buying offices for every major retailer selling wine in the Southeast US.

In his private life Scott's passion is teaching Uechi Rue Karate. Uechi Rue is one of the 3 main traditional Karate systems from Okinawa Japan in the early 20th century. Scott is the lead instructor at Authentic Martial Arts in Seminole. Scott is a certified Master Instructor in the Kenukai organization holding the rank of Shichidan, (7th degree Blackbelt).

In addition to his passion for wine and Karate, Scott loves to read, spearfish with friends, and spend time with his wife of 30 years and his two daughters, Malyna and Briana.
