Rotary Guest Speaker Alanna Karaosmani, Chief Operating Officer of EmpowHERment, July 8, 2026

Alanna Karaosmani serves as Chief Operating Officer of EmpowHERment, a nonprofit dedicated to helping women thrive by fostering the financial, mental, and emotional tools needed to achieve lasting self-sufficiency. After more than six years of passionate involvement with the organization, Alanna formally stepped into the role of COO in 2024, where she now leads organizational operations, strategic growth, partnerships, and program development.

With over 16 years of executive leadership experience in banking, financial services, and community outreach, Alanna has built her career around uplifting communities and creating meaningful impact. Throughout her professional journey, she has served in a variety of board leadership roles and has been deeply committed to initiatives that strengthen families, support small businesses, and empower women to rise into financial independence and personal growth.
